

Wyckoff Schools Weekly

August 7, 2020

Dear Wyckoff School District Community,

I hope everyone is well, and that you and your families are faring well after this week's storm. Our maintenance staff has been working hard to clear the fallen trees and limbs and clean up the school properties that were impacted, and we are awaiting restoration of power to some of our schools.

Our School Pandemic Response teams have also been meeting this week to prepare for our reopening in September. Please note: The following "Parent Town Hall" meetings scheduled to provide updates and address questions regarding the September return to school. School-based staff meetings are being offered to provide updates for teachers and staff as well. The dates for "Parent Town Halls" are as follows:

- Coolidge School Parent Meeting- Monday, August 24th at 6:30 PM via Zoom
- Lincoln School Parent Meeting - Monday, August 24th at 6:30 PM via Zoom
- Washington School Parent Meeting - Monday, August 24th at 6:30 PM via Zoom
- Sicomac School Parent Meeting - Tuesday, August 25th at 7 PM via Zoom
- Eisenhower Middle School:
 - 6th Grade Virtual Information Session on September 1st at 7:00PM via Google Meet
 - 6th Grade Live Guided Tours for students only on September 9th at 10:00AM (Team 1), 11:30AM (Team 2), or 1:00PM (Team 3). Parents can pick up spirit wear outside during their child's tour time. This event takes the place of the 6th Grade Scavenger Hunt that was originally scheduled on August 31st.
 - 7th Grade Virtual Information Session on September 2nd at 7:00PM via Google Meet
 - 8th Grade Virtual Information Session on September 3rd at 7:00PM via Google Meet

Incoming Kindergarten parents, please check your email accounts today to view our Kindergarten Welcome letter, which was emailed via School Messenger, our e-blast system.

We are continually updating our Reopening FAQ document to address the frequently asked questions that have come in via our reopening@wyckoffschoools.org.

Please note that the Board meeting initially scheduled for August 10th is postponed and will be rescheduled to a later date due to the power outage.

I wish you and your families an enjoyable weekend.

Sincerely,
